2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner is facing trial in a maintenance case filed against petitioner wife. In the meanwhile, the petitioner and his wife were attending the Court proceedings on the day of petitioner abused and assaulted his wife thereby created annoyance and panic over the mind of the public and Court official, came to know the same, while learned Subordinate Judge came out from his chamber and asked the same, while the petitioner abused the judge with filthy words and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this is the second bail petition, the earlier petition having been dismissed by this Court in Crl.O.P. No. 28489 of 2026 dated 05.10.2026. He further submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and the petitioner is in judicial custody since 14.09.2026; and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and sought for bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner abused the judge with filthy words and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.
