2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant found that 11 ¼ sovereigns of gold ornaments, comprising 5 sovereign gold coins and 6 ¼ sovereigns gold chain valued at approximately Rs.3,37,500/- were missing from her almirah on 25.06.2025. The complainant had allegedly left her house in the case of her sister during her visit to her native place in April 2025. Subsequently, she suspected her sister's son A1 who allegedly stated that he had pledged the ornaments Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. It is seen that the petitioner is a benefit purchaser and on the representation of A2, jewels were pledged with the petitioner and the petitioenr has been implicated based on the confession statement. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account the submissions made by
