2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant, a final-year law student, was allegedly induced by one Tharani, who dishonestly obtained his Aadhaar card and SIM card details. Utilizing the said personal credentials, a bank account was opened in the name of the de-facto complainant with the Tamilnadu Mercantile Bank. Subsequently, without the knowledge or authorization of the de-facto complainant, the said bank account was actively utilized to orchestrate and execute cyber fraud transactions. The fraudulent involvement of the account came to light only when the de-facto complainant was officially informed by the Whitefield Police Station, Bengaluru.

3. It is submitted that the petitioner had filed a similar application for bail in Crl.M.P.No.4494 of 2026 before the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Tiruvallur, on 27.10.2026, which is currently pending. The petitioner has not only suppressed the pendency of the said application before this Court but has also falsely averred in paragraph 5 of the petition filed before the Trial Court that no bail application has been moved before the High Court of Madras.

4. This clear suppression of material facts amounts to making a false statement before the Court. Consequently, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
