2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had borrowed a sum of Rs.11,20,000/- from the defacto complainant, which led to a dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. During the dispute, the petitioner allegedly abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with a knife, caused injuries and threatened him. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has no previous cases pending against him. However, he opposed the grant of bail to the Petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the injured was
