2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.10.2026, pursuant to alleged secret information, the police party proceeded to Saminathan Rental House, Karaipalayam and allegedly apprehended the petitioner at about 06.00 Hrs. The petitioner was searched and that the police allegedly recovered 23 Nos of Kanja Chocolate weighing about 4.600 Kg from the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated and that there are no previous cases pending as against the petitioner and prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police confirms that there are no previous cases pending as against the petitioner. While reiterating the gravity of the economic offence, he submits that considering the period of custody and a major portion of the investigation has already been completed, this Court may pass appropriate orders by imposing stringent conditions.

5. Heard the submissions made by both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the substantial period of custody undergone by the petitioner from 12.10.2026 and that there are no previous cases pending as against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. In the result, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Avinashi, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix his photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure his identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily twice at 10.30 a.m., and 5.30 p.m., for a period of 30 days and thereafter, as and when required;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial, and shall not maintain any contact with the witnesses to the occurrence, the officials dealing with the case, or any other person who might be connected to the occurrence;
