Women Act, in Crime No.427 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police and seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity petitioner made criminal intimidation against the defacto complainant and also abused her in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail and also submitted that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account the submissions made by both sides and the fact that investigation has almost been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
