2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 27 Hans packets and 1.350 kg of banned tobacco products. Hence, the case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case on account of previous cases pending against him. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 30.09.2026 and that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation. The learned counsel would further contend that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was found in possession of banned tobacco products. He further submitted that eight previous cases are pending against the petitioner, including one case under the NDPS Act, one case under 302 IPC and five theft cases. He also submitted that the petitioner is a History Sheeter bearing No.9 of 2027. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides and the nature of the allegations, this Court is of the view that though eight previous cases are pending against the petitioner, taking into account the period of incarceration already undergone by him since 30.09.2026, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is s ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No. II, Poonamallee, Tiruvallur, and on further conditions that:
