ORDER

When the matter came up for hearing today, the learned counsel would submit that with reference to some of the other disputes between the parties, an application was filed under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 2016 [hereinafter referred to as 'the Act'] and the Arbitrator has already been appointed.

2. In view thereof, the learned counsel would submit that with reference to any other issue which is not before the arbitrator can also be submitted before the same arbitrator with the consent of parties, in which case, they can move the interim application, if any before the same learned Arbitrator under Section 17 of the Act and in view of the said submission, this court does not see any pressing need to grant relief under section 9 in the present application.

3. In view thereof, with such liberty kept open to the applicant to file fresh applications if the need arises, either before the arbitrator under section 17 or ultimately before this court.

Accordingly, this application stands closed. No costs.
