ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by Sunder Mohan J.)

The father of detenu - Deepak, S/o.Dinakaran, aged 23 years, has filed this petition challenging the detention order dated 04.09.2025, branding him as a 'Goonda' under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Preventive Detention Act, 1982 (Act 14/1982).

2. We have heard learned counsel for petitioner and learned counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu (Criminal Side) for respondents.

3. The detention order is liable to be quashed on the sole ground that the detaining authority's satisfaction that the detenu is likely to file a bail application is based on the unsigned and undated statement of a relative of the detenu, who is said to have stated that she is taking steps to file a bail application on behalf of the detenu. We have in HCP No. 1684 of 2025, held that, the unsigned statement cannot be relied upon to infer that the detenu is likely to file bail application.

4. We find in this case that in the copies furnished to the detenu and this Court, there is no date in the statement of the relative. However, a date is mentioned in the said statement in the copy that was available with the learned counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu (Criminal Side), appearing for respondents. This indicates that the date has been affixed in the copy furnished to the Public Prosecutor only after the copy of the undated statement was furnished to the detenu. The investigating officer ought not to have resorted to such a practice. We leave it at that.

5. Therefore, the reliance placed on the said statement by the detaining authority to arrive at the satisfaction that there is a real possibility of the detenu coming out on bail is misconceived. The inference that the detenu is likely to be released on bail and consequently, would indulge in further criminal activities also is without any basis.

Hence, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

6. In light of the aforesaid discussion, this Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the Detention Order passed by the second respondent in No.650/BBCDEFGISSSV/2025 dated 04.09.2025, is set aside.

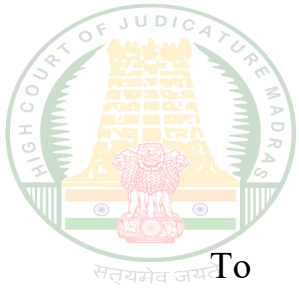

7. The detenu, viz., Deepak, S/o.Dinakaran, aged 23 years, who is now confined in Central Prison, Puzhal, Chennai, is hereby directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
