2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner suspecting the defacto complainant of not picking up his calls, quarreled with him and while the defacto complainant was sleeping , the petitioner sat on him and attacked him by using knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case, and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court, and hence, prayed for the grant of bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that this is a case of attempt to murder. He further submitted that the investigation completed and the charge sheet filed. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. It is a case of attempt to murder of a co-worker. The petitioner is a first accused. According to the prosecution, the petitioner suspected the defacto complainant of having an affair with his wife. It says that on the night of 04.06.2026, the petitioner sat on the defacto complainant while he was asleep and stabbed him with a knife. The petitioner was arrested on 03.06.2026. The petitioner hails from the state of Uttar Pradesh. The investigation has been completed and the charge sheet has been filed and was taken on file in SC.No.248 of 2026. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the period of incarceration already undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each (One surety must be a blood related surety) for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Principal District and Sessions Court, Kancheepuram, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or
