2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and defacto complainant are neighbours. It is alleged that when the defacto complainant questioned as to why the petitioner has quarreled with his wife, the petitioner abused him, inflicted cut injury to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case, and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court, and hence, prayed for the grant of bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. It is a case of attempt to murder in a drinking quarrel. According to the prosecution, the petitioner in a drunken state, quarreled with his wife, and his neighbour asked him to go to sleep. The petitioner threatened to kill him, threw a knife at him, and caused a cut on the left side of his neck. The petitioner was arrested on 28.10.2026. The injured has been discharged from the hospital.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the neighbour intervened in a family quarrel and that there was no intention to attack him. The quarrel arose suddenly, and there is no previous case. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations and the period of incarceration already undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.IV, Tiruppur, and on further conditions that:

> [a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;
> [b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;
> [c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
