ORDER

This Civil Revision Petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for quashing the docket order dated 10.09.2026 and for a direction to the court below to take the plaint on file and to number the suit.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and perused the materials available on record.

3. The petitioners are the plaintiffs, who filed the suit seeking for the relief of declaration of title, permanent injunction, mandatory injunction and recovery of possession. The plaint was returned by citing five reasons on 14.08.2026. Insofar as the reasons 1, 3, 4 and 5 are concerned, the petitioners/plaintiffs complied with the same. Insofar as the second reason is concerned, the petitioners/plaintiffs have submitted their explanation. Inspite of the same, the papers were once again returned by the court below on 10.09.2026 by reiterating the earlier objection at Sl.No.2. Aggrieved by the same, the present Civil Revision Petition has been filed before this Court.

4. The court below returned the plaint once again on the ground that the petitioners/plaintiffs did not produce the relevant revenue records to establish their possession.

5. In the considered view of this Court, the petitioners have submitted their explanation, and the production of the relevant documents to establish their right and possession need not be insisted upon even at the threshold. Hence, the court below is directed to take the plaint on file and number the same and proceed in accordance with law.

6. This Civil Revision Petition is disposed of in the above terms. Registry is directed to return the original plaint to the learned counsel for the petitioners in order to enable the petitioners to re-present the plaint within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No Costs.
