“12. It is respectfully submitted that the Petitioner had earlier filed a suit for the same relief before the learned District Munsif Court at Chengalpet in O.S. Furthermore, the Petitioner preferred a complaint before the State Commission for SC/ST in Complaint No. 66 of 2024, alleging that the Respondent institution had not allowed her to write the examination and had subjected her to caste-based abuse. However, the said complaint was dismissed on 02.04.2024 after the Petitioner admitted during the enquiry that she had filed a false complaint.

The Petitioner falsely submitted before this Hon'ble Court that the Respondent College has not allowed her to attend classes because of pending fees. However, despite the Petitioner having outstanding fee dues to the institution, she is allowed to attend classes and is doing so regularly. For the current VII semester, the Petitioner's attendance is as follows:

the Petitioner currently owes the institution Rs. 37,000/- in tuition fee dues and Rs. 60,210/-in other fees for the facilities availed up to VII semester.”
