2. Heard Mr.N.Subramaniam, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.A.R.L.Sundaresan, learned Additional Solicitor General of India appearing for Ms.P.J.Anitha, learned counsel for respondents.

3. After extensively hearing the arguments on both sides, it has now been suggested by the learned counsel for the petitioner that, with respect to item Nos. 1,2,3,4,7,8 and 13 which have been partly completed, he would complete the remaining work within a period of three weeks from the date on which the respondents provide him with the locations / places of installation in terms of the petitioner's letter dated 09.12.2024, particularly with reference to the rates. The learned Additional Solicitor General has accepted the said suggestion on instructions.

4. With reference to the remaining items of work, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that he has no objection to the same being put up for a fresh tender. Further, he would submit that the petitioner will not make any claim for being allocated the new items.
