3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner served as Selection Checking Inspector in the respondent Corporation and retired from service in the year 2013. He continued that the retirement benefits were calculated on the pre-revised pay scale and hence, there arose difference in disbursement of his terminal benefits, for which, he made representations and since no response, he filed W.P.No.31741 of 2023 and pursuant to the aforesaid writ order of this Court dated 06.11.2023, the second respondent considered his representation and admitted their liability towards difference in terminal benefits. He further submitted that as the admitted amount has not been disbursed, he made a detailed representation to the respondents on 24.10.2025, however, there was no response till date and hence, the present Petition.

4. Per contra, the learned counsel appearing for the respondents fairly admitted the contentions of the petitioner and submitted that there may be a direction to the respondents to disburse the same.
