Petitioner(s)

Vs

The State represented by Inspector of Police
All Women Police Station, Kangeyam.
Tiruppur. Crime No. 24/2025.

Respondent(s)

PRAYER

This Criminal original petition is filed under Section 482 of BNSS to enlarge the Petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police in Crime No. 24 of 2025 on the file of the Inspector of Police, All Women Police Station, Kangeyam, Tiruppur.

For Petitioner(s): Mr.J.Kingsly Solomon

For Respondent(s): Ms.J.R.Archana, GA (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 85, 77, 316 & 351 (2) of BNS in connection with the Cr.No.24 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegations against the petitioner is that the marriage between the petitioner and the defacto complainant was solemnized on 06.06.2025 and after the marriage, the petitioner sexually abused and harassed her by demanding additional dowry. Petitioner also threatened to circulate the intimate photos of the victim. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. He further submitted that after the marriage, the petitioner and the defacto complainant lived together only for 15 days and subsequently they have entered into an agreement to file a divorce petition and accordingly, he has filed a divorce petition before the Sub Court, Thirumangalam and he has also relied on the copies of the relevant documents filed in the typed set of papers and prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution's case and on instructions, submitted that the investigation in this case is still pending and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. I have gone through the FIR and the records including the typed set of papers filed by the petitioner's which reveals that the petitioner has filed a petition seeking divorce before the Sub Court, Thirumangalam and the memorandum of understanding entered into by the parties concerned, and considering the facts and circumstances of this case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate cum Judicial Magistrate, Uthukuli, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 am., for a period one week and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned

Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
