2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he is ranked as A2 and that due to a dispute between A1 and the defacto complainant, he instigated A1 to attack the victim/defacto complainant. Pursuant to such instigation, A1 went to the house of the defacto complainant and attacked her with a blade, causing severe injuries on her face and thigh. Hence, the complaint was lodged.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is a lady and she has not directly attacked the defacto complainant in this case. Though it is alleged that she instigated the occurrence, the said allegation is false and baseless. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that A1 in this case has been arrested and that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, and the fact that the petitioner is a lady and that she has not directly attacked the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned II Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen0 Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
