2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and assaulted her with a hammer on her head and caused severe injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there are no bad antecedents against the petitioner and due to sudden quarrel the occurrence had taken place. Therefore, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
