2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners installed a CCTV camera facing the de facto complainant's residence and subsequently posted the recorded footage on Instagram, portraying themselves as rowdy. When the de facto complainant questioned their actions, the petitioners allegedly abused him in filthy language and assaulted him. On these grounds, the case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are willing to cooperate with the investigation and are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side), appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution's case and, on instructions, submitted that the CCTV footage has not yet been removed from Instagram by the petitioners. She further submitted that the investigation is pending and, therefore, vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking note of the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, specifically the fact that the offensive video footage remains accessible on Instagram and that the investigation is currently pending, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
