2. The allegation against the petitioner is that she joined hands with the other accused and was involved in promising to secure an MBBS seat and collected a sum of Rs.70 lakhs. Hence, the complaint was lodged.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the alleged occurrence took place in the year 2012 and that the complaint was lodged after a lapse of 13 years and it is a false acquisition. He further submitted that it is alleged that the payment was made only to A1 and that A1 was arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are totally two accused in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A2. He further submitted that the petitioner is having two previous cases pending against her. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the fact that the alleged occurrence took place in the year 2012 and that the complaint was lodged in the year 2025, and there is no specific overt act against the petitioner and the majority of the allegations are against A1 and also considering that the petitioner is a lady, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
