3. The learned Special Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the respondents 1 to 3 would submit that the petitioner has not submitted any online application. Necessarily, the petitioner will have to submit an online application to enable the official respondents to survey and demarcate the boundaries of the subject property.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, would submit that the petitioner is willing to submit an online application.

5. No prejudice would be caused to the respondents, if a direction is issued to the petitioner to submit an online application with the 2nd respondent seeking survey and demarcation of the boundaries, within a time frame to be fixed by this Court and a consequential direction is issued to the respondents 1 to 3 to survey and demarcate the boundaries of the property, after hearing the objections of the respondents 5 to 7, and any other third party whom the 2nd respondent deems fit to put on notice, within a time frame to be fixed by this Court. This Court is not expressing any opinion on the merits of the petitioner's application seeking survey and demarcation of boundaries.
