respondents to survey and demarcate the boundaries of the subject property.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, would submit that the petitioner is willing to submit a fresh online application. The said statement is recorded.

5. No prejudice would be caused to the respondents, if a direction is issued to the petitioner to submit an online application with the 4th respondent seeking for survey and demarcation of the boundaries for the property morefully described in the prayer to this writ petition, within a time frame to be fixed by this Court and a direction is also issued to the official respondents to survey and demarcate the boundaries of the property, after hearing the objections of the respondents 5 and 6, and any other third party whom the 4th respondent deems fit to enquire, within a time frame to be fixed by this Court.

6. This Court is not expressing any opinion on the merits of the petitioner's application seeking for survey and demarcation of boundaries.
