4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the offences committed by the accused are serious in nature and that the victim is 14 years old. Therefore, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Earlier, the bail petition filed by the petitioner was dismissed in detail after perusal of the statement recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to accept the contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the charge sheet has been filed before the concerned Court amounts to a change in circumstances. Since the petitioner/accused being a teacher, allegedly indulged in such activities with a 9th standard student, which is unbecoming of a teacher, this Court is not inclined to entertain the present petition. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed. The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to take necessary steps to ensure the trial is completed at the earliest.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
