2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of the first petitioner and the first petitioner along with other accused persons have abused the defacto complainant and obtained her jewels and purchased a property in her name but forced to sale the property. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondents submitted that matrimonial dispute is pending between the parties and the petitioners had complied with the interim order already granted by this Court.
