The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420, 468, 120(B) of IPC, in Crime No.159 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused received money from the defacto complainant for getting job for her. Thereafter, they neither secured a job nor returned the money to the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution, and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the co-accused has already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court and the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent submitted that the petitioners and other accused had cheated the defacto complainant to secure a job and the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the co-accused was already granted anticipatory bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Virudhunagar, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:
