The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 192(3), 296(b), 329(3), 324(4) and 351(2) of BNS [corresponding sections 147, 148, 294(b), 447, 427, 506(1) of IPC], in Crime No.387 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioners along with other accused persons trespassed into the property of the defacto complainant's wife and they have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him and caused injuries and also caused damage to the trees planted by the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like
