right leg on 24.07.2019 and he was discharged on 12.08.2019 from the hospital. The petitioner has incurred a sum of Rs.2,15,803/- towards the medical treatment and therefore, she has submitted a representation for reimbursement of the medical expense. However, the representation was rejected by the 5th respondent that the illness suffered by the petitioner's husband is not covered under the scheme. Aggrieved over the same, the petitioner preferred an appeal before the 2nd respondent and the 2nd respondent has not taken any decision on the appeal filed by the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner is before this court.

2. When this writ petition is taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader, who takes notice for the respondents submits that the appeal preferred by the petitioner was already rejected.

3. In view of the above submission, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to ensure that the
