The petitioner/accused who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 189(2), 61(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 329(4) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.6 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.01.2026, when the first accused was fixing a CCTV camera in his house, the defacto complainant objected on the ground that his house was visible in the CCTV footage. When the defacto complainant questioned the same, the accused persons allegedly joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant, using filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Therefore, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the fact that the petitioner is serving in the Army, considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also considering the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Mudhukulathur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:
