The petitioner/accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 61(2)(a), 316 and 3(5) of BNS in Crime No.71 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons insisted the defacto complainant to invest in online trading company which is run by one Saravanakumar. Believing the same, the defacto complainant had invested Rs.1,00,000/- on 08.11.2022 and his mother/Geetha invested Rs.10,00,000/- to one Balasubramanian and he had also invested Rs.25,00,000/- and thereby the members of the family had invested Rs.8,09,00,000/- and now the trading company had cheated in and around Tamil Nadu by not returning the money. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against her. The petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged crime. He would further submit that the name of the petitioner does not found place in the First Information Report and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the accused persons had cheated the victims to the tune of Rs. 8,09,00,000/- The amount involved in this case is very huge and the offence committed by the accused is grave in nature. He would further submit that investigation is pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the considering the fact that the petitioner not directly involved in the money dealing with the accused and the fact that the petitioner is not a named accused in the First Information Report and already co-accused was released on bail and also the fact that the date of occurrence is 08.11.2022 and the First Information Report has been registered on 10.12.2025 with a delay of three years and no previous case is pending against the petitioner this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

CRL OP(MD). No. 1114 of 2026

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Madurai and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
