ORDER

The petitioner is an employee of the respondent Transport Corporation. He has been engaged as workman in the corporation and subsequently he has been promoted to the managerial cadre on 04.03.2017.

2. The wage revision applicable to the petitioner while he was working as workman is based on the wage settlement. The petitioner has availed the benefit of wage revision as per the Wage Settlement of the years 2010 and 2013. Subsequent wage revision was made only on 04.01.2018, it was implemented notionally on 01.09.2016 and monetary benefit was given with effect from 01.09.2017.

WP(MD)No.2233 of 2026

3. Since the petitioner has been promoted to the managerial cadre, he is covered under the pay commission revision. Pay Commission revision is made once in 10 years. However the wage settlements are made once in 3 years.

4. The petitioner claims that since he has been promoted to the managerial cadre, he has not been provided with the benefits under the wage settlement and therefore, the petitioner claims wage revision as per the pay commission recommendations implemented vide G.O.Ms.No.303 at the rate of 2.57 multiplier. Whereas the department claims that the petitioner has availed the wage settlement benefits and therefore, he is entitled for pay revision at the rate of 2.44 multiplier.

5. Claiming pay revision @ 2.57 multiplier some of the workmen have filed writ petitions before the Principal Seat and the same were allowed, confirmed by the Division Bench and also by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The revision petition filed by the department was dismissed. Therefore, the employees, who have been promoted to the managerial cadre in between 01.01.2016 and 31.10.2018, have been provided with wage revision as per the pay commission revision @ 2.57 multiplier. Therefore, the petitioner has filed this writ petition claiming similar relief.

6. The main contention of the respondent transport corporation is that this writ petition is liable to be rejected on the ground of laches and that the petitioner has availed the benefits of wage settlement and therefore, he is entitled for wage revision as per the award passed by the Arbitrator @ 2.44 factor. In similar issue this court has also referred the matter to the Arbitrator and Hon'ble Mr Justice E.Padmanaban (retd) has passed an award dated 03.05.2018. The relevant paragraph of the award passed by the Arbitrator reads as under:

“120. It is held that the wage scale of employees of the State Transport Undertakings have already been fixed at by 20 applying multiplier factor of 257 as a result of several consecutive revisions reached in a span of once in three years. Therefore, statutorily the claimants have already been given the benefit of multiplier factor of 2.57 by virtue of earlier three consecutive settlements as well as the latest settlement concluded on 04.01.2018 Therefore, the claimants are not entitled for any further revision of wages than concluded in terms of settlement entered on 04.01.2018. This point is accordingly answered.”

7. The Arbitrator has rejected the claim for revision of pay @ 2.57 multiplier, since the petitioners therein availed the benefits of settlement of the year 2010, 2013, 2016 and 2018. The petitioner claims that he has not availed the benefit of settlement of the year 2018. Therefore, he will not come under that category.

8. Since this Court has already granted the relief to the similarly placed persons, who have been promoted in between 01.01.2016 to 31.10.2018, which has also been confirmed by the Division Bench of this Court and by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this writ petition is allowed.

9. The petitioner herein, who has been promoted on 04.03.2017, has not availed wage revision as per wage settlement dated 04.01.2018. Therefore, the petitioner is entitled for the revised scale of pay at the rate of 2.57 as provided to all other Government servants vide G.O.Ms.No. 303. In the event if the petitioner has already availed the benefit under the wage settlement of the year 2018, the same shall be recovered from the petitioner. Since the petitioner has approached this Court belatedly, he is not entitled for the interest. The revised scale of pay shall be calculated from the date of his promotion till the date of his retirement and shall be disbursed to the petitioner, within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
