The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 118(1) & 296(b) of BNS, r/w Section 3(1) of Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage & Loss) Act, 1992, in Crime No. 15 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute the petitioners along with other accused persons have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him and caused injuries and also damaged the door and car of the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court.

Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Valliyoor, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made
