3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the subject property is ancestral in nature and that the petitioner and his family members are in possession and enjoyment thereof. During the UDR sub-division, the extent of the property was wrongly mentioned in the UDR computer chitta. Seeking to rectify the said error, the petitioner has submitted a representation dated 18.06.2024 to the respondents. Pursuant to the said representation, the second respondent initiated proceedings dated 10.07.2024. Thereafter, the same is still pending without any progress. Hence, the petitioner has approached this Court by filing the present writ petition for the relief stated supra.

4. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents would submit that the enquiry will be completed and appropriate orders will be passed within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. Recording the aforesaid submission and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the matter, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the second respondent to conclude the proceedings dated 10.07.2024 and pass
