The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 351(2) of BNS Act corresponding to 506 of IPC r/w Section 67(A) of IT Act, 2000, in Crime No.60 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had an intimate relationship with the defacto complainant and allegedly blackmailed her into living with him. When she refused, the petitioner threatened to upload her photos and videos on the internet. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that as per the direction of this Court, the petitioner has produced his mobile phone before the respondent police and also submitted that the investigation is almost completed.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the property has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Dindigul District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Dindigul District, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
