The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 329(4), 131, 351(3) of BNS ACT, 2023 and Section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, the accused persons have illegally trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and the accused persons have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, a case has been registered as against the petitioner.

3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the defacto complainant is wife of A-1 and A-2 is friend of A-1.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the relationship between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of The Judicial Magistrate Court, Valliyoor, within a period of fifteen days from the date when the order copy made ready and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

[b]the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e]On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the
