The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 316(2) & 336(2) of BNS (420, 406 & 465 of IPC), in Crime No.37 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The prosecution's case is that the petitioner, along with other accused persons, received a sum of Rs. 22,00,400/- from the complainant but provided substandard oil, which led to the filing of the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is a inter-mediator between the oil industry and the defacto complainant, a false case has been given. He further submitted that the petitioner had already withdraw the petition filed before the lower Court. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD), No.2177 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and the investigation is still pending. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit some amount to the credit of crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Vendasandur, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy was made ready and on further conditions that:

[a]the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond
