2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had 5 1/2 sovereign of gold in her house. On 05.07.2025 at about 7.00 am., she had checked the gold sovereign before going to work in her bero. Subsequently, on 14.07.2025 at about 7.00 am., when she checked the bero she found that 200 grams of gold sovereign was missing. Therefore, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the respondent police stating that she had doubt on three persons. Hence, the apprehension of arrest. Hence, a case has been registered as against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and the petitioner has not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the offences committed by the petitioner are serious in nature.
