punishable under Sections 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023, and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.736 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.09.2025, the petitioner, while she was performing her official duty at Lalgudi, the petitioner and other accused persons approached her, created a scene in a public and abused her in filthy language and also attacked her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police submitted that the injured person has been treated as Out patient.

However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured person has been treated as Out patient , this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi, Trichy, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left
