2. The case of the prosecution is that due to political enmity, the accused persons have assembled unlawfully and waylaid the defacto complainant's vehicle and scolded him with filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, a case has been registered as against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent submitted that political dispute is pending between the parties.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact political dispute is pending between the parties, this
