The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.11.2025, 12.11.2025 and 04.12.2025 for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (corresponding to Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860), in Crime Nos.553 of 2025, 521 of 2025 and 327 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police respectively, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with A1, committed theft of 8.5 sovereigns of gold jewels in all the three cases, valued at Rs.9.40 lakhs. Hence, based on the complaint given, the cases have been registered for the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and that she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that though she has previous cases, all of them are now posted for trial and the amount involved in all the three cases has already been recovered from the house of the petitioner. He further submitted that A1 has already been released on bail. Hence, he sought the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submitted that the investigation has been completed and the final reports have been filed before the learned Judicial Magistrate Nos.I and II, Padmanabhapuram, respectively. He further submitted that the jewels involved in the three cases were recovered from the house of the petitioner and that this Court has already directed the Trial Court to complete the trial. Hence, he objected to the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials placed on record.
