191/8, measuring an extent of 9 cents. After his demise, his four sons became entitled to the property through sale deeds. Subsequently, the petitioner's grandfather enjoyed the property and remained in continuous possession for more than 65 years until his death. Thereafter, the property was inherited by the petitioner's father and his uncle, Gnanadurai. Thus, the petitioner's family alone is entitled to the property. However, an error occurred during the UDR scheme, and the petitioner has applied for rectification of the said mistake.

3. Heard the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents 1 to 4.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and in light of the direction issued by the second respondent to the third respondent to conduct an enquiry and submit a report. It is noted that the third respondent has completed the enquiry and passed an order dated 29.05.2025 in proceedings Pa.Mu.A3/8856/2022. In the said order, it was recommended that the petitioner's family members are entitled to the property and that any errors ought to be rectified. Accordingly, the second respondent is directed to consider the
