4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that after the disposal of the aforesaid W.P.Crl.(MD).No.915 of 2025, even before six months had elapsed, the writ petitioner in the aforesaid writ petition had already encroached upon the aforesaid property, even thereafter, the fourth respondent was not able to obtain an order of injunction. In this regard, a police complaint was also lodged by one Sugapriya, W/o.Mahalingam, who is the third respondent in the aforesaid writ petition, following which, the first information report in Crime No.58 of 2026 was registered on 20.02.2026 by the third respondent police.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either and carefully perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the delicate situation, facts and circumstances, this Court hereby extended time to comply the order passed by the Court in W.P.Crl.(MD).No.915 of 2025 for a further period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

7.Accordingly, this Writ Miscellaneous Petition is allowed.
