For Anticipatory Bail in Cr.No. 12 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 406 and 420 of IPC, in Crime No. 12 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and A4 were known each other and A4 introduced A1. Believing the representation of A1 that he stated a business in share market investment and if the complainant invested amount, he will give attractive returns, the complainant, invested a sum of Rs.71,00,000/- in various occasions. However, A1 failed to do so. Hence, the case.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the defacto complainant are present and represented that the matter has been settled amicably in the Mediation centre on 22.06.2026 on some terms and conditions.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) confirms that the matter has been settled between the parties before the Mediation center and however, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that the matter has been settled amicably in the Mediation centre, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
