3. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents submitted that a survey had already been conducted as early as 2025. He further submitted that the petitioner had not provided the boundary stones, and therefore, the same could not be installed. He also stated that the petitioner filed another application and paid the requisite fee on 09.01.2026.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court directs the third respondent to conduct a survey, demarcate the boundaries, and install boundary stones after issuing notice to the petitioner as well as any rival claimants. The petitioner shall provide the boundary stones at his own cost. If required, the jurisdictional police shall extend protection to facilitate the survey and demarcation of the property. The Court is also directing the Official respondents to adhere to the following Standard Operating Procedures:

a. The Official respondents shall issue notice to the petitioner immediately reaching the spot where survey is to be conducted. The petitioner shall affix the signature by receiving the notice of survey.
