4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the subject properties are ancestral in nature and the petitioner and his family members are in peaceful possession and enjoyment thereof. Due to clerical and administrative errors, the property details in the UDR do not accurately reflect the petitioner's ownership, causing inconvenience and affecting the petitioner's lawful rights. Despite the submission of the representation, the first respondent has failed to take any action or pass orders, thereby denying the petitioner the benefits and legal recognition entitled to him. Hence, the present Writ Petition.

5. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents 1 to 3 would submit that the petitioner's representation will be considered and appropriate orders will be passed on merits and in accordance with law within a time frame to be fixed by this Court.

6. Recording the above submission, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the matter, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the first respondent to consider the petitioner's representation 06.02.2026, on merits
