Against the said order dated 24.04.2025, a writ appeal came to be filed by the 7th respondent in W.A(MD)No.1337 of 2025 before the Division Bench of this Court, wherein the parties agreed before Division Bench that it is for the first respondent to conduct necessary enquiry and not by the third respondent. Accordingly, an enquiry was conducted and a report was submitted before the learned Division Bench, pursuant to the interim order passed by the learned Division Bench. After taking note of the said report, the learned Division Bench closed the writ appeal as having become infructuous. The contempt petition filed therein alleging violation of the interim order passed there in were also closed.

4. From the order dated 21.11.2025 passed by the learned Division Bench in the said writ appeal, it is evident that liberty has been granted to the writ petitioner to take appropriate steps challenging the report dated 22.10.2025 submitted by the Enquiry Committee.
