2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is entitled to the disputed property, while respondents 4 to 6 have also claimed rights over the same. In this regard, the petitioner submitted a representation to the second respondent/Revenue Divisional Officer. Upon receipt of the application, the second respondent initiated proceedings and, on 16.09.2025, called for a report from the third respondent. However, despite the request being made as early as September 2025, the third respondent has not submitted the report as on date. Therefore, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. Heard the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents 1 to 3.

4. Taking into account the above facts, the Court directs the 3rd respondent to submit a report to the 2nd respondent, within eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Thereafter, the 2nd respondent shall consider the petitioner's application within a further period of twelve weeks therefrom.
