2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused were found in illegal possession of 2.500 Kgs of Ganja. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the case, a false case has been lodged as against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 24.01.2026. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner is having one previous case.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the properties were recovered and the seized contraband is not commercial quantity and also considering the period of
