2.The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between them, on 27.07.2020 at 2.30 p.m., the accused said to have criminally intimidated the defacto complainant and caused damages to the properties. Hence, the above has been registered as against the petitioner for the above alleged offence.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the employee of the landlord and the defacto complainant is cultivating tenant. There was no such occurrence taken place as alleged in the FIR. A1 and A2 were released on bail. This petitioner is A3 and has been falsely implicated in this case. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent on instructions submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and there is serious allegation made against the petitioner. Hence, he sought dismissal of the petition.
