2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the property originally belonged to N. Murugesan, son of Narayanasamy, and his wife, M. Latha. Both Murugesan and his wife jointly executed a sale deed (Document No. 1612 of 2024, dated 06.03.2024) to an extent of 3600 sq. ft. (8.26 cents) in favour of the petitioner. The petitioner has since been in possession and enjoyment of the said property. However, due to a natural calamity, the survey boundary stones erected on the land were destroyed. Therefore, the petitioner seeks to have the land surveyed afresh and to re-erect the boundary stones. It is further submitted that the petitioner has already filed an application along with the requisite fees, but the respondent has failed to consider the same.

3. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for respondents 1 and 2, and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the third respondent, submitted that even after the execution of the sale deed, the petitioner has not mutated the revenue records, which continue to remain in the name of the previous owner, and that the application submitted by the petitioner is still pending.
