The petitioners/accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police in Crime No.4 of 2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 85 and 351(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant and the second petitioner is the mother-in-law of the defacto complainant. On 25.02.2026, the first petitioner is alleged to have assaulted the defacto complainant due to a matrimonial dispute relating to dowry. Hence, the case has been registered against the accused for the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and that they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that a case has been foisted against the petitioners. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant. He further submitted that, if the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail, they are likely to harass the defacto complainant. Accordingly, he objected to the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. This Court heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials placed on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, and also considering the manner in which the incident had taken place, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, this petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court,
